

Laboratory for Studying the Subsistence Theory

THE SUBJECT OF OUR RESEARCH

Establishment of a subsistence theory for self-reliance of a community and the people who live there

We are trying to create new technology and skills for human subsistence while learning from the traditional wisdom and skills for self-support of ancient people, and we are studying its significance for labor ontology and environmental resources.

